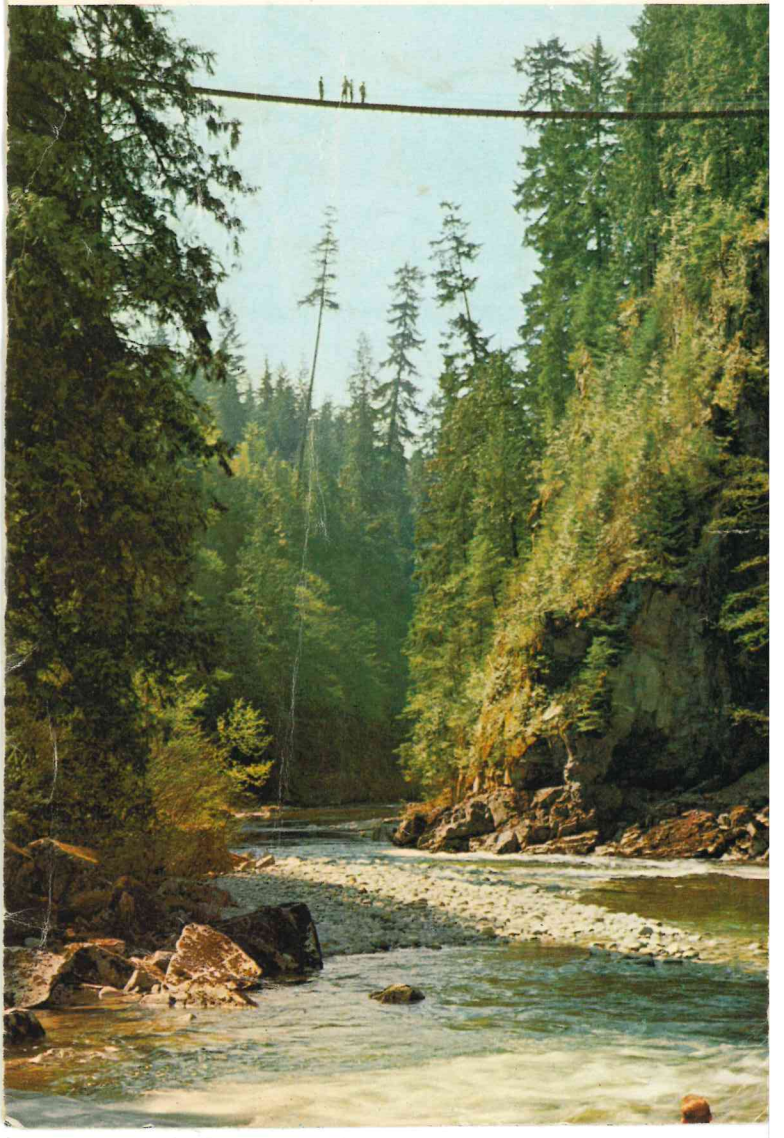
NORTH VANCOUVER, CANADA

CAPILANO

CANYON
SUSPENSION BRIDGE

8TH WONDER OF THE WORLD



SEE

The world famous Capilano Suspension Bridge, 230 feet above the river, stretching 450 feet across the Capilano Canyon has thrilled and enchanted tens of thousands since 1899. This is a must for every visitor and native of Vancouver.

VISIT

The Capilano Trading Post where you can browse among thousands of fascinating items of native handicraft, hand-made jewellery, hand-carved totem poles, Cowichan Indian sweaters and many other souvenirs, travel memories, or presents for the folks back home.

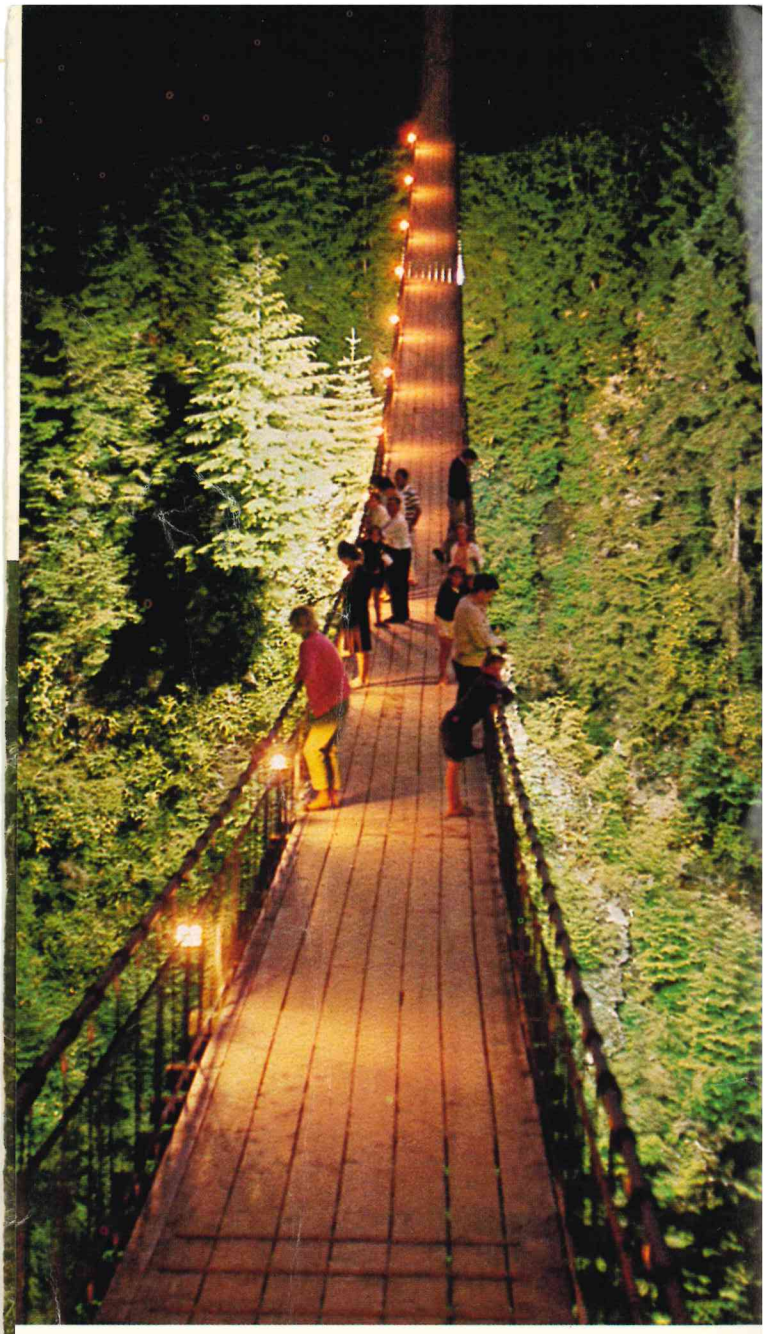
Be sure to visit the Old Indian Wishing Well of Capilano.

And take your own photos of our large collection of Indian totem poles, life size Indian figures carved from red cedar logs and a real wigwam. All this in a breath-taking setting by the big canyon of the Capilano River, ancient hunting and fishing grounds of the Capilano Indians, who still live nearby.

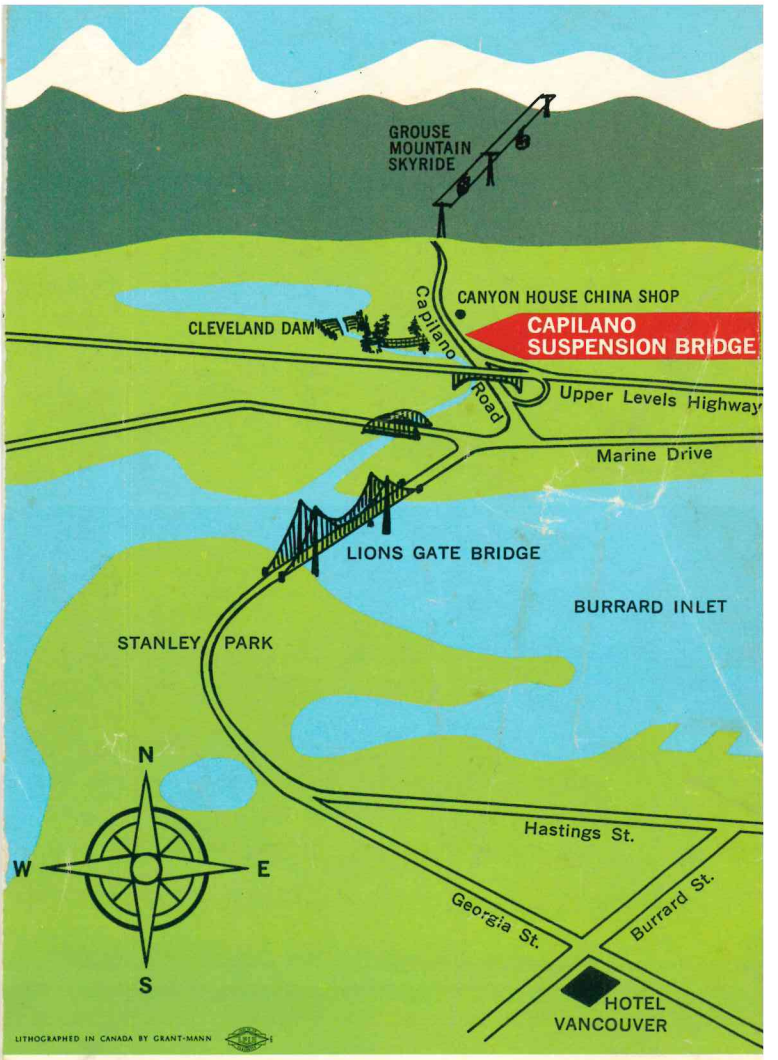
CAPILANO SUSPENSION BRIDGE TRADING POST

WORLD FAMOUS SINCE 1899

SEND FOR YOUR FREE RETAIL CATALOGUE



See the spectacular bridge illuminated by lights in the evenings during the months of July and August. Open until 10:30 p.m.



DON'T MISS THE CAPILANO SUSPENSION BRIDGE — 8th WONDER OF THE WORLD

Large collection of Indian totem poles.
Open every day 8:00 a.m. till dark.
Gigantic British Columbia Douglas fir and cedar trees, up to one thousand years of age and still growing.
Life-size Indian figures carved from red cedar logs by world famous wood carver Aage Madsen.
20 acres of scenic grandeur.

LIFE MAGAZINE'S FAMOUS PICTURE OF THE WEEK TAKEN HERE

"Few roller coasters offer more thrills".....
—National Geographic Magazine

"High above the Capilano River and Canyon . . . "
—Illustrated London News Magazine

"World's longest suspension foot bridge swinging 230 feet above the Capilano River"
—Life Magazine

"A unique tourist attraction which elicits enthusiastic shrieks from thousands . . . "
—Maclean's Magazine

BRING YOUR CAMERA

CAPILANO SUSPENSION BRIDGE

CAPILANO ROAD — NORTH VANCOUVER, B. C.